This is our Sixth Annual Sale. While it is not as large as our previous sales, we are offering a good lot of cows, with calves at foot, both sex, and a goodly number rebred, carrying blood lines of great note, such as Anxiety Fourth, Don Carlos, Beau Donald, Prince Rupert, Adrian Dale, Fairfax and others of like breeding. Our breeding is strong and we think our cattle are the kind constructive breeders want in their herds. The bulls are good ones—couldn't be any other way—good individuals backed with a goal line of breeding. Remember if you are going to want a bull next spring, you can winter him cheaper than the other fellow is willing to. Write for Catalogue.

MRS. CATT SUPPORTS COX AND URGES INDEPENDENTS TO BACK HIM WITH VOTES.

Urging independent voters to support Cox and Roosevelt in order that America's entrance into the League of Nations may be assured, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National Woman Suffrage Association, whose influence throughout the country probably is greater than that of any other woman, has written a letter to the Pro-League Independents telling why she will support the Democratic national ticket. Mrs. Catt makes it plain that she is not a Democrat and partisanship has no part in influencing her. The National Woman's Party, which carried on a campaign for suffrage distinct from the one waged by the organization headed by Mrs. Catt, also has issued a formal endorsement of Cox. Mrs. Catt's letter follows in part:

"I am glad to accept the appointment as one of the Vice Chairmen of the Pro-League Independents. I am enrolled in no party and desire to continue a non-partisan. I have long been an advocate of a League of Nations and I now believe in the League because a League 'in the hand' is worth any number of Leagues 'in the bush'."

"I agree with Senator Johnson who said (Cleveland, Oct. 14th) that 'the League of Nations is the greatest campaign issue since the Civil War.' When he announces further that Mr. Harding 'wants neither interpretations, nor reservations, but rejection and Mr. Harding does not object, it becomes clear that the way to enter the League does not lie in the direction of Mr. Harding. The only hope promised by the Root statement purporting to represent the League wing of the Republican party, is that Mr. Harding, if elected, will cause an entire new Covenant or fundamental revision of the present one to be written."

south 80 rods, thence west 20 rods, thence north 80 rods, to place of beginning, containing 10 acres, and containing in the aggregate 50 acres.

Which said conveyance was made in trust to secure the payment of a certain promissory note in said deed of trust described; and whereas by the terms of said deed of trust and note, said note is past due and remains unpaid; now therefore, in conformity with the provisions of said deed of trust, the undersigned trustee will, on between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of said day at the South front door of the Court House, in the City of Farmington, St. Francois County, Missouri, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the above described real estate and improvements thereon to satisfy said note and the cost of executing this trust.

LUTHER H. WILLIAMS, Trustee.
(Oct. 29, Nov. 5, 12, 19.)

What G. O. P. Success Spells

"What next? To secure its necessary adoption by the Senate, sixty-four votes are required. Even if the most rosate Republican expectations are realized in the coming election, that party could not command more than fifty-six and this number would be hopelessly divided between the group led by Senators Johnson and Borah, which will consent to no League, and those who might be rallied by the support of the new covenant. The Republicans would be forced to secure anywhere from twenty to forty Democratic votes in order to ratify the new proposal. Is it reasonable to suppose that these Democrats will be more liberally intentioned toward a Republican covenant than Republicans are toward an alleged Democratic covenant? A Senatorial deadlock seems the only possible result arising from that combination of circumstances."

"There are millions of men and women who will vote on the Democratic and Republican tickets because their traditions would permit them to do nothing else. There should, however, be a determining number of independent men and women voters who aspire to no party favors, recognize no party thralldom and fear neither the criticism of friends nor foes but who do want their votes to serve the evolution of society. These should be able to turn the tide and by so doing to open the door for the entrance of our nation into this world-compact to build the enduring peace. This does not mean that I have allied myself with the Democratic party for I am not a Democrat."

A MOTHER'S PRAYER.

Accompanying a check for the Democratic Campaign fund was this letter: "Elizabeth, New Jersey, Oct. 6, 1920. Georgia White, Esq., Chairman Democratic Nat. Com. New York City, N. Y.

Dear Sir: "Please accept the enclosed small contribution to the fund for dissemination of truth about the League of Nations. It is literally a 'widow's mite,' but it comes from a mother who sent four greatly needed sons to the World War. Two of those sons, with almost unlimited possibilities for future usefulness, were killed; a third was ill in hospitals in France for five months, due to gassing in action, and is still cascified as 'unfit,' and a fourth risked his precious young life in the air. When an honest and concerted effort is being made by the nations of the earth to save, if possible, future mothers and sons from these sacrifices, it is hard to realize there are those who oppose an effort. I feel sure that among those who paid for the war there can be but one opinion, and that is to try the League of Nations, even if it is not perfect. It is the best that has been proposed, and, all objections being weighed, is manifestly the most feasible. Please God it will not fail.
